BANK OF ORR.

Conviction of Four Young Men in U. S. Court.

Fraudulent Scheme Successfully Worked in Lawrence County, Near the Elliott Line.

Four youths, who were indicted and sentenced by Judge A. M. Cochran in the Federal Court at Covington, were, according to the testimony, the originators of a fictitious bank scheme used to defraud business houses in New York and other large cities. The youths are George White, 16; Marion Sparks, 20; Richmond Sparks, 18; and Dave Prince, alias Walter Bryce and other assumed names, 17.

According to the testimony the youths concocted a fraudulent banking scheme in Orr, Ky., a little mountain hamlet composed of a postoffice, blacksmith shop and a few residences. Dave Prince was the president, secretary and treasurer of the "bank." So far as the Government detectives can ascertain the lads realized $2,300 from their scheme.

Attention was called to the "bank" by letters from New York City, Dayton, Ohio, St. Louis, Mexico and other cities, to the post-office inspector's office of the Cincinnati division, in which the merchants complained that they had been defrauded. Inspector E. F. Hatches was detailed on the case.

Money and merchandise, he found, were being secured by fraudulent means. Dave Prince, according to the testimony, while using his aliases, would give the "bank" as reference. In this way he secured the letters of merchants addressed to the "bank," asking if he was good for the bills he contracted. Assurance would be sent out by the "bank" that he was and the goods were shipped by the merchants.

The boys who helped Prince conducted the bank like experts, and drew drafts and checks on banks in Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky, although they had no funds deposited anywhere. They branched out and sent checks for orders of merchandise. In every instance the checks exceeded the amounts of the bills ordered, and in many instances the difference was remitted back to them in good checks.

A Dayton (O.) whiskey house was caught for a large number of cases of whiskey. This was "bootlegged" about the country, for which Marion Sparks was indicted for selling liquor without a license.

A lot of revolvers were also secured by giving the "bank" for reference. While in jail, it is alleged, Prince ordered a pair of trousers, giving a bogus check. It also developed that they even defrauded the firms that supplied rubber stamps for the "bank," as well as those that supplied the stationery.

When the testimony was in Judge Cochran could hardly believe that the youths, born, raised and never away from the mountains of Lawrence county, engineered such a well-planned scheme to defraud. He asked if some older head had not advised the boys, but they declared that they had operated by themselves.

Owing to their youth, Dave Prince, Marion and Richmond Sparks were sentenced to the Federal prison, Atlanta, for one year, while George White will be confined in the Campbell County jail for four months.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Holcomb Meeting Grand Success.

Evangelist Walt Holcomb's great revival meeting came to a successful conclusion on Sunday night last. It had lasted twelve days, and the people were eager for a continuance, but while the spirit was willing there is a limit to human endurance, and regretfully and tearfully, but joyously, the last song was sung and on Sunday night the greatest revival in the history of Ashland was closed.

The history of the meeting parallels the history of Mr. Holcomb's other meetings in this section: great crowds, hundreds of conversions and additions to the churches, a great awakening of the people to higher and better things, and the voluntary contribution of hundreds of dollars for the support of the Evangelistic Alliance.

The Ashland Independent has these last words concerning the meeting:

"Ashland will not soon forget the coming and searching power of this distinguished evangelist. He has faithfully warned every wanderer from God, whether in or outside of the churches of God in this city and vicinity. The high tide of religious interest is now to be followed up by the faithful pastors in united services in all the churches in easy access to the people. 'Behold how good and pleasant it is to see brethren dwell together in unity.'"

Masonic Temple for Ashland.

Poage Lodge No. 325, F. & A. M., of Ashland, is going to build a fine temple in that city. The lodge owns a 75-foot lot on East Winchester avenue, between 16th and 17th streets, and it is on this site that the Masonic Hall will be erected—a most desirable and admirable location in every respect. The proposed location is one of the best in the city, and it is a certainty that the structure will be modern in every respect. The Masonic Lodge, Knights Templar, Royal Arch and Shriners of Ashland have a large and wealthy membership, and nothing but the very best in the way of a new lodge home will satisfy them.

MRS. BEN BURKE

Died of Consumption at Her Home in Louisa Last Friday.

After a lingering illness which she bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, the spirit of Mrs. Sarah Burke left its frail tenement of clay on the afternoon of Friday, April the eighth, and winged its way to the House eternal. On the Sunday following, at the M. E. Church South, in the presence of a very large concourse of friends and relatives, the Rev. O. F. Williams, pastor of the M. E. Church South, of Russell, Ky., preached the funeral sermon of her whose friend and pastor he had once been, but who now, an untimely victim of tuberculosis, lay before him in her flower-laden casket. At the close of the solemn and touching service the body was taken to the Fulkerson cemetery, followed by a large number of people of this city and other places who in this way testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Burke was held and manifested their sympathy for the bereaved husband and the relatives who mourn the loss of a sister and daughter. There the last office for the dead was pronounced, and the places which once knew the much loved woman will know her no more forever.

Mrs. Burke was born on Beaver Creek, Floyd county, Ky., about twenty-five years ago. Her maiden name was Allen. Three years ago she and her husband, Mr. Ben Burke, came to Louisa and took residence with us. She soon endeared herself to all who met her, and more particularly to those who were her neighbors. These mourn for her as for the loss of a much loved relative. She was gentle and retiring in disposition and manner, cheerful even when racked with the pain of disease, helpful when it was possible to help. She was a faithful member of the M. E. Church South, and was supported and comforted by the promises of her religion through her long illness, dying in the full assurance that her faith in God and His Christ would guide her to a blessed immortality.

The following relatives were present at the funeral of Mrs. Ben Burke: Her sister, Miss Dollie Allen, of Floyd county; Mr. Burke's mother, Mrs. James Burke, of Catlapa; his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burke, of Pikeville; A. J. Loar, of Huntington; Mr. Burke's sister, Mrs. W. M. Cooksey, of Grayson, and Mrs. Will Burke, of Catlapa.

Bible Study.

The seeker after light and information concerning the Bible has opportunity in Louisa not often found elsewhere. In these days of research and investigation the Bible comes in for its full share. Men and women are asking and reading, not being content to read the Scriptures blindly and ignorantly. Many who go to church and listen to the reading and expounding of the Word fail to derive from this attendance that knowledge which comes from home study and lucid explanation by one thoroughly familiar with the Bible.

There is afforded to us an opportunity for the profitable study of the Scriptures which should be eagerly embraced. This golden time is the weekly meeting of what is known as the Bible Circle Study, a circle which meets every Thursday evening in the M. E. Church South for the regular, systematic study of the best of books. It is conducted in a very interesting and practical way by Prof. E. M. Kennison, of the K. N. C., himself a Presbyterian minister. He is familiar with his subject, is a fine Hebrew and Greek scholar, and teaches in a way which makes him understood by all.

The entire matter is thoroughly un denominational, completely unsectarian. No "doxy," no "ism" is taught. The circle is open and free to all, no fees, no collections, no "lessons" to be learned. But the earnest, thoughtful attendant does learn an immense amount of valuable knowledge. Attend one time, and see if you do not go regularly thereafter.

She Has Visited Louisa.

Boston, Mass., April 12.—Miss Margaret Fitzgerald, of Maysville, Ky., it was announced by the Athletic Association today, has been chosen to compete for the Lincoln Challenge Cup at the all-round tournament to be held this month at Wellesley College. Miss Fitzgerald will be on the junior team of ten. There will be thirteen events in the competition and they will be judged according to the "form" in which they are performed.

Miss Fitzgerald was a member of the house-party last summer, given by Mrs. Eugene Buffington, of Chicago, at her old home, "Beechmoore," in Catlettsburg.

The members of the party visited Louisa as guests of Mrs. Hannah Lackey. Miss Fitzgerald was quite a popular member of this house-party, and many of the "younger set" here will remember her pleasantly.

An Old Citizen Gone.

"Uncle" Russell Thompson, formerly of this county and this city, died Wednesday at his home in Boyd county, near Kavanaugh, where he had lived during the past three or four years. Mr. Thompson was born on Little Blaine, and to his old home on that creek his mortal remains will be taken for interment, which will occur on Friday. By his first wife Mr. Thompson had sixteen children. His last wife was Miss Samantha Figg, of this place.

Mr. Thompson was a highly respected Christian man, sober, industrious and intelligent. Those who knew him best speak of him in terms of highest praise. He died of pneumonia and was seventy-two years old.

Have Gone to Children's Home.

Mr. Waller, an agent of the Children's Home at Louisville, was here this week collecting destitute children. He left this morning taking with him two bright children, a boy and a girl, whose mother is Mrs. Ida Stultz, a widow.

Other children were expected, but at the last moment they were not to be found.

THE CENSUS.

Work on This Big Job Starts Today.

Interesting Facts About it, and List of Lawrence County Citizens Who Will Do the Local Work.

With the break of day on Friday, the 15th instant, a host of 70,000 interrogators, men and women, white and colored, will be turned loose in pursuit of the people of the United States. On that day Uncle Sam will begin the numbering of his children in preparation for the Thirteenth census. He estimates that he has a family of about 90,000,000 men, women and children, and he already has employed and will put to work a body of enumerators considerably greater than the standing army.

The law provides that the enumeration shall begin on the 15th, but it is not so peremptory about the commencing time as about the closing time, and already intimations have been received that in some instances the work may be postponed until Saturday. This is due to the fact that the 15th falls on Friday, and among the 70,000 nametakers there are some who are superstitious as to this day of the week.

The enumeration will cover all of the forty-five States and two territories of the union proper and also Hawaii and Porto Rico, Alaska, the Philippine Islands and Guam will not be included, as special arrangements are made for numbering the people of those dependencies.

Under the statutes governing the work the entire enumeration must be completed within a month, and in the cities the work is limited to fifteen days. It is expected that some of the returns from the cities will be received as early as the first week in June, but the exact population of the entire country will not be determined before some time in September. The census officials will, however, know within a few thousand of the number long before the close of the summer months. They will be able to reach a substantially accurate conclusion by their payrolls, but this will be more or less speculative, and the figures will not be given out.

The following is the list of the enumerators for Lawrence county and their districts:

- 94; No. 1, (part of) and No. 8 (part of); all of Louisa town.
- Fran C. McClure, 93; No. 1, (part of); all of Magisterial district No. 1 lying outside of Louisa town.
- Daniel J. Maynard, 95; No. 2, (part of); all of Rockcastle voting precinct and that part of Peach Orchard voting precinct lying on the east side of Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy river.
- Robert Hatfield, 96; No. 2, (part of); all of Gambill voting precinct and that part of Peach Orchard voting precinct lying west of the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy river.
- M. M. Burgess, 97; No. 3, (part of); all of Georges Creek voting precinct.
- Sylvester Ball, 98; No. 3, (part of); all of Little Blaine voting precinct.
- Stanton Miller, 99; No. 4, (part of); including Blaine town; all of Blaine voting precinct.
- Wm. M. Chapman, 100; No. 4, (part of), excluding Blaine town; all of Cherokee voting precinct.
- Wm. M. Gambill, 101; No. 5, (part of); including Blaine town; (part of); all of Swetnam voting precinct.
- Morton E. Sparks, 102; No. 5, (part of); all of Lyon voting precinct.
- Isaac Cunningham, 103; No. 6, (part of); all of East Fork and Cat voting precincts.
- Thomas W. Hensley, 104; No. 6, (part of); all of Dry Fork voting precinct.
- Lindsey G. Waller, 105; No. 7, (part of); including Fallsburg town; all of Fallsburg voting precinct.
- Zack Bellomy, 106; No. 7, (part of); excluding Fallsburg town; all of Bear Creek voting precinct.

W. J. Roberts, 107; No. 8, (part of), excluding Louisa town (part of) all of Busseyville voting precinct and that part of Lower Louisa voting precinct lying outside of Louisa town.

Rice McClure, 108; No. 8, (part of), excluding Louisa town; all of Twin Branch voting precinct.

Are Making a Mistake.

There are ten families who came down over the Ohio & Big Sandy branch of the C. & O. railroad this forenoon who were moving up the Guyan Valley where the men are to be employed at some of the coal mines along that road. Most of them came from the neighborhood of Whitehouse. During the spring there has been a great exodus from the Sandy Valley of farmers who have gone to other counties of the state that they claim are better adapted to their business than the counties along the Sandy river. That most of them are making a mistake there can be no doubt, as all that is necessary to make the farming industry exceedingly profitable in the counties adjacent to the river is for the farmer to stick to it and employ the more modern means and scientific principles in their work when they may make plenty of money at their business.

With the rapid development that is going on along the river it can not be but a few years when there will be one of the best markets in that section for farm products to be found anywhere.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

LIFE-TIME SENTENCE

Seems to be In Store for Samuel Crabtree, Formerly of Louisa.

Although a life-time sentence under the habitual criminal act is staring Samuel Crabtree in the face in West Virginia, the grand jury in session in Covington fastened another link on him, in the event he is not convicted in Virginia.

Crabtree was indicted for blowing the postoffice safe at Greenup, Ky., and securing $504.75 in cash and stamps December 6th of last year. His arrest was brought about by the Postoffice Inspector's Department of the Cincinnati Division. The Government sleuths traced Crabtree's "swag" to Green Bottom, northeast of Huntington, W. Va., where he buried his nitroglycerine, revolvers, fuses, drills and other safe-blowing paraphernalia.

Before taken into custody by the Government officers, Crabtree, so the Virginia authorities claim, held up a man named Charles Skirba, of Charleston, W. Va., by knocking him in the head and robbing him of $40.

While in the jail at Huntington, Chief of Police Robinson told Crabtree the Government authorities had the "goods" on him for the Greenup job. Realizing his position and knowing that he had served three terms in the penitentiaries of Kentucky and Virginia, he made a written confession to Chief Robinson covering the Greenup burglary. The Government believes that the West Virginia Court will put Crabtree away for life under the habitual criminal act, whereas if the Federal Court tried him first he would get off with a sentence of about three or four years in the penitentiary.

Percy Blackwell, believed to be an accomplice in the robbery in West Virginia, and who was serving a sentence at Catlettsburg, Ky., was brought to Huntington for trial.

Crabtree, so the Government officials claim, is an accomplice of the notorious Hart's Creek gang, sent up by District Attorney Elliott Northcott about three years ago. It is also believed Crabtree was affiliated with some of the yeggmen who were working in Cincinnati and who attempted to blow the Newport postoffice safe only about six months ago. If he escapes the Virginia authorities he will be tried by the Government officials in Covington.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Halley And His Comet.

The NEWS has been keeping itself posted regarding the disturbing thing, earthly or celestial, now titating the public mind. This is next comet, the strange, vagrant visitor upon whom is trained the telescopes of astronomers all over the civilized globe. Much has been written of Halley's comet, whose return after many years was predicted a year or so ago. It is now a daily visitor, to be seen about dawn, a speculation concerning it is everywhere conceivable. Everything conceivable is happening is laid to the comet. Heat, cold, drought, prices, war, pestilence, twins. We are to be ground up, burned up, asphyxiated, on, blotted out in a twinkling. No doubt before the comet goes many will be rendered insane. No astronomer of repute prophesies any of these direful catastrophes, but there are hundreds of poor mortals who will listen to and believe some ignorant pretender in preference hearing and heeding the great astronomer who ever lived.

Isaiah Wiley

Isaiah Wiley, who was sent by the Lawrence County to the penitentiary a year last winter for voting in the same election, has been released by the Governor.

The testimony showed that he was almost feeble-minded, a he hardly knew right from wrong. The Governor says, in his for the pardon. He says the evidence was that Wiley, after being once, was given whiskey by election worker and taken to other precinct and voted again. He has served about four months of one-year term in the penitentiary and the Governor orders his release from the penitentiary, but says right to citizenship is not restored.

"I think that this man should be restored to the right to vote and never should have been permitted to vote at all."

The corn seeding season is at hand and there never was a time when the farmers should pay more attention to the character of their seed corn and the proper preparation of the land for upon these two things depend in a large manner the size of the crop. This at least is the farmers' responsibility, the rest depends upon the season over which he has no control. In Iowa there has been an increase in the corn product of thirty per cent per acre from more carefully selected seed and more intelligent cultivation. What has been done in Iowa can be done in Kentucky and as every additional bushel of corn means an increased profit on the same investment and the same amount of labor it is up to our farmers to be up-to-date in corn seeding and corn seed.

Points Regarding the Census. The census begins April 15 and must be completed in two weeks in cities and in thirty days in all other areas.

The enumerators will wear a badge inscribed "United States Census, 1910." The law requires every adult person to furnish the prescribed information, so that no injury can come to any person from answering the questions.

The President has issued a proclamation, calling on all citizens to cooperate with the Census and assuring them that it has nothing to do with taxation, army or jury service, compulsory school attendance, regulation of immigration, or enforcement of any law, and that no one can be injured by answering the inquiries.

It is of the utmost importance that the census of population and agriculture in this state be complete and correct. Therefore every person should promptly, accurately, and completely answer the Census questions asked by the enumerators.

Proof lies in the testimony of Louisa people who have been cured to stay cured.

Mrs. Sarah Pigg, Main Street, Louisa, Ky., says: "I suffered from many distressing symptoms of kidney trouble. My back was the weakest spot and the dull, heavy pains through my loins were almost unbearable. I was weak, tired and devoid of ambition and often was annoyed by headaches and dizzy spells. Irregular passages of the kidney secretions also bothered me and I felt like giving up. Doan's Kidney Pills were at length brought to my notice and I began their use. Before long the kidney secretions were regulated and the other symptoms of my trouble disappeared. I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my friends." (Statement given June 27, 1908.)

On June 22, 1909, Mrs. Pigg added to the above: "I can safely say that Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney trouble permanently. During the past year and a half I have not had the least return of this complaint."

NEW WASH SUITS.

Beautiful Materials, Correct Styles and Popular Prices.

We take unusual pride in announcing the arrival of our new line of Wash Suits for the spring and summer season. The tendency to purchase garments in preference to materials has been growing for some time and any woman is wise in so doing when she can obtain the kind of garments that this showing represents. While we show a complete line of practically every fabric and conceit that will be popular, those in greatest demand will be the white and natural fabrics of which we have a large selection of excellent styles and values.

PRICES RANGE FROM $5.00 UP.

The first named we believe to be the minimum figure at which a satisfactory garment can be sold and ranging from this price on up will be found the most beautiful of the season's styles in a great variety of new effects and in many weaves and a full range of sizes.

Each price represents its equivalent in actual value; a selection of styles representing the best obtainable; and the range of weaves and effects are sure to please our most discriminating trade.

Early Selections are Preferable

because it gives the purchaser choice of the stock at first hand. The best styles and the most exclusive garments are usually sold at the beginning of the season. There is a great difference in selections that suit our fancy as to style, fit, color, and effect, and in making purchases of what you can obtain after the better numbers are taken and this difference is all in favor of the early purchaser.

Tonic or Stimulant?

There is an immense difference between a tonic and a stimulant. Up one day, way back the next; that's a stimulant. Steady progress day by day toward perfect health; that's a tonic. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic, a strong tonic. The only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Do not stimulate unless your doctor says so. He knows. Ask him. Do as he says. J.C. PIKEVILLE.

Monday at about 1:30 p. m., the rapid firing of a pistol, and the blowing of the whistle of the Elkhorn division passenger gave warning that there was a fire, when 'twas soon discovered that the big Flanery building, a business house, was in flames, caused from a gasoline tank and stove exploding in a restaurant on the first floor of the building. Owing to the low pressure of water in the city reservoir, but little could be done from that standpoint and the flames quickly spread to the upper story where were the law offices of W. H. Flanery, containing his $3,000 law library, the law office and furnishings of J. E. Childers, office of Stoney Arnick, civil engineer, all of which, with the rest of the building was consumed. The big barber shop, occupied by Will Hunter, in which three barbers were employed, and the Star restaurant occupied the first floor. The barber fixtures, which belonged to Mr. Flanery, and a typewriter is all that was saved. The building belonged solely to W. H. Flanery and there was not a dollar's worth of insurance, owing to the high rate demanded by the companies. The reason for this was the carpenter shop and builders' supply establishment of T. J. Williamson's which was directly against the Flanery building and which looked to be very combustible. The building had only last fall had a fine heating system, bath, toilet, etc., placed in it, which caused an outlay of $900; consequently Mr. Flanery's loss at the lowest estimate is six thousand dollars. He prized so much among his diplomas one framed and hanging on the wall, issued by the University of Michigan and containing the signature in his own hand of Judge Cooley, the great author of constitutional law, and which was affixed shortly before that eminent jurist's death. The loss is so heavy that it will take years to recover from it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Freeman, Mrs. Pierce, Supt. of the Deaconess Home and Training School of Cincinnati, and Miss Solomon, sister of Mrs. Pierce, came up Monday and left in the afternoon for Elkhorn, where Mr. Freeman and the ladies will interest themselves in Miss Dora Bridges' mission work. They will return here Wednesday and will leave for Ashland on that day.

There is a rumor current in this community that John Fetterly, the founder and proprietor of the tiling plant at this place, will leave for Salersville, where the people offer him a bonus of $1,500 cash to move his plant there. We said "rumor," but as soon as we heard it we interviewed Mr. Fetterly to get the facts, and he verified what we had heard. He said he was greatly discouraged because out of about thirty-five who had signed contracts to use the tiling only three have complied with their promises, and meantime he has the tiling already burned, and ready to burn more than fill all contracts.—Hazel Green Herald.
